

YOU COMMENTED EASTSIDE · HERE'S THE STARTER PACK

The Eastside: your first weekend

Five places to drive first, one perfect weekend, and where to eat, all east of the lake. No rankings, just where to start.

FIVE PLACES TO DRIVE FIRST

Downtown Kirkland. The Eastside's waterfront main street: beaches, marinas, Park Lane.

The Points loop. Medina, Clyde Hill, Hunts & Yarrow Point: quiet lanes and lake glimpses.

Issaquah. Mountain-town feel at the foot of the Issaquah Alps, with trailheads from downtown.

Old Bellevue. Main Street charm a block from Meydenbauer Bay, under a downtown skyline.

Downtown Redmond. The fast-changing tech core, with Marymoor Park on its edge.

THE FIRST WEEKEND

Saturday

Coffee on Park Lane, then Marina Park and the Kirkland waterfront. Juanita Beach after lunch, and the afternoon in Woodinville wine country.

Sunday

Bellevue Downtown Park loop, brunch on Old Main Street, then the Meydenbauer Bay Park boardwalk. Feeling ambitious? Cougar Mountain or Poo Poo Point before dinner.

EAT & DRINK, BY STREET

Park Lane in Kirkland. Old Main Street in Bellevue. The Woodinville warehouse district for tasting rooms. My full pin-by-pin map: comment FOODIE.

THREE PARKS THAT EXPLAIN THE EASTSIDE

Marymoor: 640 acres in Redmond, with concerts, the off-leash area, and the climbing wall.

Meydenbauer Bay Park: Bellevue's front porch on the lake. Luther Burbank: Mercer Island's shoreline calm.

Want the full 70-neighborhood guide? DM NEIGHBORHOODS. Moving here? DM SHORTLIST and I'll narrow it to five for you.
